ORDER

At Wilmington this 18th day of January, 2008, having conducted an evidentiary hearing in connection with the default judgment entered against defendant; and having given plaintiff additional time to prove her claim for lost wages in the amount of $64,000 per year (D.I. 25); and plaintiff's having failed to submit any records in response to the court's December 18, 2007 order;

IT IS ORDERED, consistent with the court's ruling of December 18, 2007, that judgment is hereby entered in the amount of $70,817.39, as follows: $25,000 in compensatory damages; $24,000 in lost wages;<sup>1</sup> and $21, 817.30 in attorney fees and

<sup>1</sup>Calculated as follows: The difference between the court-designated past salary of $32,000 per year (D.I. 25) and the mitigating salary earned after leaving the position at Gator's ($24,000 per year) for three (3) years. The court has not included in its lost wages calculation the dental assistant job plaintiff held for 4 months after her termination, and has concluded that three (3) years of lost wages is a fair award of damages under the circumstances at bar.
